50X1-HUM

- 1. The Yugoslav Government reportedly has organized groups of young people to conduct clandestine propaganda in Soviet satellite countries. In early December Marshal Tito personally dispatched five groups of these propagandists (each group containing six men), terming them "the vanguard of true Communism".
- 2. A full squadron of short range bombers, estimated at 120 aircraft, has reportedly been purchased by the Yugoslav Government. Such planes will be used to bomb Soviet and satellite troops on the Yugoslav frontier and the Rumanian oil fields in the event of an cutbreak of hostilities.

50X1-HUM

3. During early December the UDB arrested 26 Soviet espionage agents near Prahovo on the Yugoslav frontier. The agents allegedly confessed that they had been sent into the country by the IVD to obtain information on Yugoslav order of battle. Immediately after these arrests the Yugoslav Government redistributed its forces in the Prahovo area. One armored, together with units of former partisans and young Communists, one artillery and two infantry divisions are said to be stationed in this region.
